La Jolla High School Reunion Class of '73
"Julia, please accept my heartfelt thanks and congratulations for hosting a most exquisite reunion for us. Every detail was covered and your staff was superlative across the board. How can I heap enough platitudes on Temo. He is an extraordinary floor manager who seemed to be everywhere at once and dealt with any possible "situation" with grace and professionalism. The faculty club is very fortunate to have a staff and a manager of your quality. Please forward this mail to your boss and any other members of your organization who should want to see it."

Barry Edelstein—Artistic Director, Old Globe "The Old Globe: Theater and Community"

Barry Edelstein is a stage director, producer, author and educator. Widely recognized as one of the leading authorities on the works of Shakespeare in the United States, he has directed nearly half of the Bard's works. As Director of the Shakespeare Initiative at The Public Theater (2008-2012), he oversaw all of the company's Shakespearean productions, as well as its extensive educational, community outreach and artist-training programs. At The Public, Mr. Edelstein staged Julius Caesar starring Jeffrey Wright for "Shakespeare in the Park" and The Merchant of Venice featuring Ron Leibman's Obie Award-winning portrayal of Shylock. He was also Associate Producer of The Public's Broadway production of The Merchant of Venice starring Al Pacino. From 1998-2003 he was Artistic Director of Classic Stage Company, where he produced and directed some of New York's most memorable classical productions. Mr. Edelstein's Shakespearean directorial credits include productions of The Winter's Tale with David Strathairn, Timon of Athens with Richard Thomas, As You Like It with Gwyneth Paltrow and Richard III with John Turturro. His additional credits include the Lucille Lortel Award-winning revival of Arthur Miller's All My Sons; the world premiere of Steve Martin's The Underpants, which he commissioned; Molière's The Misanthrope, starring Uma Thurman in her stage debut; and the world premiere of novelist Nathan Englander's play The Twenty-Seventh Man. Edelstein has taught Shakespearean acting at The Juilliard School, NYU's Graduate Acting Program and the University of Southern California.

Sounding Board is a series of seven lectures during the academic year, the first Thursday at 12 noon, sponsored by UC San Diego Oceanids and the UC San Diego Faculty Club. Oceanids, faculty and friends meet at the UCSD Faculty Club in a specially designated room to eat lunch and listen to fascinating speakers. Lunch is $13.00 for guests and $9.00 for Faculty Club members (purchase required). Coffee and iced tea are provided in the meeting room. A parking permit can be obtained at the front desk. You can be sure of a lively discussion! You do not need to RSVP. Contact Judy Vacquier at jvacq@sbcglobal.net or 858-361-0418 for more information.

Promotion within the Club!

We are pleased to announce that, as of October 16th, 2013, our Catering & Marketing Assistant Stefanie Chow will be taking a giant step forward in the events industry by serving as our new Catering Coordinator. In addition to creating new campaigns to promote our services, she will assume a crucial role of maintaining good relations with clients by coordinating all their event needs.

The Faculty Club is proud to have a UCSD Alumni working on our team, and we offer full support in Stefanie's endeavors as she completes her Meeting & Event Planning Certificate at SDSU and serves as an active member in both San Diego Meeting Professionals International (SDMPI) and the International Special Events Society (ISES). Best of luck to Stefanie, as we are all looking forward to seeing great things from her.
