Brunch with The Bunny: April 16, 2006

What could be more wonderful than a Breakfast with the Bunny? A full Brunch with the Bunny of course! Due to popular request we have decided to expand our Easter event into a full brunch buffet. Chef Ed has added an impressive array of brunch items to our favorite spring breakfast menu. Aside from traditional Easter fare like Leg of Lamb with mint jelly, the Faculty Club will be serving up perennial spring favorites like strawberry shortcakes and made-to-order omelettes. We hope to see you here for what promises to be a beautiful brunch. The event time will be 9:30am to 1:30pm. The brunch will be $24.95 per adult and only $12.50 per child under 12. With the expanded menu we expect this event to be even more popular than in years past. Please call the front desk at 858-534-0876 to make your reservations or stop by after eating lunch at the club. An early reservation is a great way to guarantee the seating time you prefer.

The Naked Gershwin: April 30, 2006

Cecil Lytle and Arthur Wagner present The Naked Gershwin on April 30th. This tour through the magical world of Gershwin will include Dr. Lytle's piano virtuoso as well as letters to and about the composer. Please join us for a fantastic performance to benefit an exceptionally worthy cause. Tickets are $40. For more information and ticket purchases please go to Http://Rels.ucsd.edu or call Ginny Vollet at 858-534-0263.

Faculty Scholarly Communication Lunch Series: April 17, 2006

The UCSD Libraries and the Academic Senate's Library and Academic Personnel Committee invite all faculty members to join us at noon on April 17th for the fourth in the Faculty Scholarly Communication Lunch

Series. April's seminar will feature Ted Bergstrom, Professor of Economics at the University of California, Santa Barbara. Dr. Bergstrom's topic is "Are We Losing Control? Scholarly Publishing Is a Big Business." There will be no charge for the lunch but an RSVP will be required to jtom@ucsd.edu.

Social Sciences Supper Club: April 19, 2006

Israel and the entire world were shaken by the string of serious medical problems that befell Prime Minister Ariel Sharon. There is great uncertainty about the future of Kadima, the centrist political party he created late last year. The surprising victory by Hamas in the Palestinian elections will impact the political landscape in Israel as well. Dr. Shafir, a professor of Sociology at UCSD whose many books include an Albert Hourani winner, will provide an analysis of the Palestinian and Israeli general elections, discuss the impact the removal of Sharon from politics may have on the Mid-East peace process and offer insights into the new Hamas-led government. For more information or to make reservations please call Rosalyn Smyth at 858-822-6694 or rsmyth@ucsd.edu

Chinese Brushpainting Society Exhibition: March 27–May 14

The desire to fully capture a moment is universal. The water color process that seeks to perfect this unending quest is Chinese Brushpainting. The Faculty Club is proud to welcome to the Chinese Brushpainting Society to our gallery on March 27, 2006.

There will be a reception for the exhibition on April 5, 2006 from 4:00pm - 7:00pm. All are encouraged to come and lend their own viewpoint to this highly subjective method of representing not only the visual elements of life, but also the temporal and emotional elements as well.

This Month's Sounding Board lecture speaker will be Dr. Cecil Lytle. Dr. Lytle is a professor in the highly respected UCSD Music Department as well as the former Provost of Thurgood Marshall College. Dr. Lytle will speak on the topic, "Extending the Success of the Pruess School of Neighborhood Schools."

Sounding Board is an ongoing lecture series at the Faculty Club in which participants are welcomed to buy their lunch at the Faculty Club buffet and listen to the lecture. Buffet prices are $11.00 for guests and $7.50 for Faculty Club Members. Parking passes for the Faculty Club lot are available for purchase at the front desk for $2.00. Parking is scarce so come early to make sure you get a spot. The public is welcomed to attend.

For more information please contact Molli Wagner at 858-720-1185.

Admin Professionals Breakfast April 28, 2006

National Admin Professionals' Week is right around the corner, and to celebrate those hardworking members of our staffs who keep all the little details in place, we're holding the annual Admin Professionals' Breakfast at the Faculty Club. The Breakfast will take place on April 28, from 7:30am to 9:30am. We invite everyone to attend and join us in showing our appreciation for the Admins we know and love so well. Breakfast is $13.75/person. Be on the lookout for a flyer detailing a mouthwatering menu that's guaranteed to start anyone out on a fantastic day. Call the front desk at 858-534-0876 to make your reservations. We look forward to seeing you.
