"Hunger in San Diego County and the Food Bank's Role in Our Community"

James A. Floros President & CEO

Jim joined the Food Bank from the Burn Institute, a nonprofit dedicated to reducing fire and burn injuries and deaths, where he served as executive director and CEO from 1992 to 2012. Before that, Floros served as director of community relations at the world headquarters of Project Concern International, a development agency that provides clean drinking water and immunizations in the poorest regions of the world.

During his tenure at the Burn Institute, Floros significantly expanded the nonprofit from an annual operating budget of $320,000 and 4 employees to 12 employees, a volunteer base of 1,500, an affiliate program, two offices and an operating budget of nearly $1.5 million. When devastating wildfires hit San Diego County in 2007, Floros organized emergency assistance for burn survivors and ramped up efforts to keep the public informed about evacuation procedures. In 2008, Floros was awarded the National Burn Prevention Award from the American Burn Association and the Maltese Award from the San Diego County Fire Chiefs' Association. Under Floros' leadership, the Institute became the leading burn foundation in the nation and is held as a national model.

Sounding Board is a series of seven lectures during the academic year, the first Thursday of every month sponsored by UC San Diego Oceanids and the UC San Diego Faculty Club. Lunch starts at 11:30am followed by the lecture at 12 noon. Oceanids, faculty and friends meet at the UCSD Faculty Club in a specially designated room to eat lunch and listen to fascinating speakers. Lunch is $13.00 for guests and $9.00 for Faculty Club members (purchase required). Coffee and iced tea are provided in the meeting room. A parking permit can be purchased at the front desk.
