

Under Construction, Some Disruption

During the past year, the Club environment has been affected by several changes: a single access route for members coming to the Club by car; a reduction in the number of “A” spaces in the lot adjacent to the Club; the imposition of 3-hour limits on many of the remaining “A” spaces in Lot 206; and the retirement of longtime chef, Ed Koenigter. Yet more changes are coming!

After 30-plus years, the Club’s lease of the Faculty Club building will terminate at the end of June 2019. The university and the Board are in discussion about a new lease, with the intention that the Board and the university share oversight of Club operations. The UC San Diego Real Estate Department is working with the Board to ensure a well-managed and well-maintained Club. The selection of a food and beverage provider is underway, with a decision expected in April; the Club Board will select the vendor from a group of qualified providers who have submitted lengthy proposals. The current provider, SMG, is one of the candidates for the food and beverage provider; however, SMG’s contract with the Club terminates on March 22.

UC San Diego’s Housing Dining Hospitality department (HDH) is generously stepping in to help operate the Club and provide food, beverage, and catering services in the interim between SMG’s departure and the installation of a vendor by July 1. We intend for payment of Club dues, purchase of lunch and happy hour items, and departmental recharges to continue without interruption. All catering contracts will be honored, as will the pink loyalty cards and the pre-paid lunch booklets.

To facilitate the transition from SMG to HDH in April, the Club will be closed for lunch on Friday, March 22. All meetings and catered events scheduled during spring break (March 25 to 28) will be honored, but the lunch buffet will not be available to the general membership. The Club will be closed on Friday, March 29, in observance of Cesar Chavez Day.

The Faculty Club and HDH look forward to serving the campus community in the spring quarter.
